HELLO

TERRY BENNETT X DEMARCO

The two are on a mission to build widespread Happiness to impact the lives of many around the World. We've created an impactful project geared towards ages 2-100 to enjoy.

Part of the mission is to empower the future generation to think, act, and feel more positive. We could start by the use of 'one' of the most powerful universal words in the world, "HELLO," to build strong, happy, and vibrant relationships with each others.

We are using this song as a platform to help people go out into the world and acknowledge each other, with hopes of building communities working together to create a sense of belonging to help everyone love life organically (HELLO).
